"...le soir-rhyme"

. . . to our beloved friend and professor

. . . professor inez seagle

because of your love for mankind,
your unending help at all times,
your sincere effort to make of us better citizens, your patience with our blundering, your excellent counseling, your devotion to Christian ideals, your wonderful sense of humor, and above all, your faith in God, we dedicate to you the 1954
Hacawa.

. . . we dedicate the 1954 Hacawa

President's Message

Your HACAWA is a volume of memories and will be cherished as a reminder of college friendships and experiences which have enriched you.

In order to abound in happiness, life must be filled with precious memories. Tomorrow's satisfaction will depend upon the memories of our yesterdays. Each new day is a golden opportunity to create memories that will be a joy and not a scourge. Our choice of memories determines whether recollection will be a prison or a paradise.

EDWIN LAKE SEITZLER
Dean of College, Registrar, Professor of English

MRS. GEORGE S. BOWDEN
Dean of Women

EVERETTE J. SOX
Dean of Men

MARY K. NEWTON
Secretary to the President

It seems to be human nature to complain about authority, and to blame any and everything on those who are our superiors or "bosses," but seldom do we stop to think of what a mess we would be were it not for those very people. It wouldn't be as darling as we would like to think if some co-ed were Dean of Women, or if some Prince Charming were made Dean of Men.

No, I believe we all agree that the administration is indispensable. They are not only our guides and advisers, but our friends. They are one of us, and one of the most important cogs in this complex college mechanism. They are wonderful people, and we want to use this opportunity to let them know what a swell job we think they are doing.

“senior wheels”

Well, Seniors, this is it! Remember how green?
 sophisticated sophomores . . . the candle with two ends . . . raids(?) . . . illumination of the campus . . . Justified Juniors . . . and now . . . registering no more . . . cap and gown payments . . .
 Junior-Senior when we're the honored guests . . .
 practice teaching . . . those well-earned certificates
 . . . job hunting . . . and now the whole objective
 . . . graduation and that sheepskin . . . Was it worth all the studying and anxiety? . . . We couldn't have enjoyed anything more!

Dignified Winner!

One more year and it's all over too soon ... packed full of fun with a lot of wonderful memories to mark up ... working on the Homecoming float ... winning second prize in the comical section ... Homecoming Queen and Miss Lenoir Rhyne elected from our class ... class meetings ... planning for the Junior-Senior ... working on “Pirates of Penzance” ... running the Junior Store ... Open house ... studying and having just loads of fun.

Showing green freshmen how a typical college student should act . . . Giving each one something to look forward to . . . becoming sophisticated sophomores . . . frat sponsor from among our midst . . . success of Operation Santa Claus . . . wishing the Bears well . . . driving miles for ginger ale—all for open house . . . decorating the gym for Homecoming . . . only now beginning to realize it's just about half over!

No L.R. football game would have been complete without the marching band, the high stepping Majorettes, and, most of all, our energetic, vivacious cheerleaders. We remember them most for decorating the field for every game, for their stunts which left us amused and welcomed visiting teams, for "The Bunny Hop Yell," for leading the cheers in the mud, rain and cold—for just being at every football and basketball game.

Even though the Bears lost twelve of the best football players ever to don uniforms at Lenoir Rhyne, the big bad Mountain Bears made a great comeback after losing the first four games. At the end of season play, the grid-iron squad was battling for second place only to be beaten by Catawba and placing the Bears third in conference records.

The Bears opened the season with a strong Wofford eleven, who without much trouble sent the Bruins back to their den with the "fur flying." In the early moments, Lenoir Rhyne's Bill Eanes tossed a 40 yard pass, and it looked as if the Bears were well on the way to another successful football season. But only a few plays later the ball was taken by Wofford, and in a matter of minutes the "Terriers" had struck pay dirt. Wofford went on very easily to win the game by a score of 20 to 7.

The following week the Bears ventured to East Carolina College, where their hope for revenge was shattered by a mighty team that went on to win the conference championship. The "Pirates" took to the air and hurled beautiful passes over the heads of Lenoir Rhyne's backs, and streaked by the Bears that night by a score of 34 to 0.

Back at home again the Bruins tangled with the Newberry "Indians," the sister college of Lenoir Rhyne. Improving as the game progressed, the Bears were able to get off some beautiful runs as passes, but just couldn't seem to get the right combination for a touchdown. Newberry managed to push the pigskin across the goal twice during the course of the night, handing Lenoir Rhyne their third loss of the season, 13 to 0.

With strong hope in their hearts, Lenoir Rhyne's Bears and fans journeyed through the mountains to Appalachian only to see the frail Bears bow to a crushing "Mountaineer" team by a score of 32 to 6. The "Mountaineers," with faces leering with revenge, jumped right in on the Bears, and breezed through them throughout the entire game.

After losing the first four games, the Bruin team and supporters were quite downcast, but right before the game, spirits were brightened by the College President, Dr. Voigt Cromer. To use his words: "We were bitten by the Terriers, Ramsacked by the Pirates, Scalped by the Indians, caught in the Mountaineer's Bear Trap, but we're sure not going to be converted by the Quakers." The fired up Bear eleven dug their claws into the Quakers and won the contest very easily with a score of 25 to 14.

Taking another trip to the mountains, the Bears upset hopes of the Western Carolina "Catamounts" by racking them 21 to 20. Both teams playing good offensive ball, it was a nip and tuck ball game the entire time. It was Western Carolina's fourth loss by a one point margin.

The next week the Bears went to Roanoke, where they played in the Pythian Bowl game against Emory and Henry College. The underdog Bears managed to remain on top of the Victory Wagon as they pounced on Emory and Henry, leaving them at the short end of a 21 to 7 score.

Again at College Field, the Bears poured on the steam against a strong Elon team. The highly favored "Christians" were tumbled at the hands of the supposedly weak Bruin team. With accurate passing and running on the part of Bill Eanes and Henry Smith, and capable blocking of the entire forward wall, the Bears rolled to victory once more by a score of 27 to 14.

With the final game of the season, played on Thanksgiving Day with the traditional Catawba Indian Rivalry, the Bears got set to send them home with a defeat. But much to the sorrow of the Bear eleven, the Indians were keyed up for the traditional match also. Putting on a great show, the Indians dominated the field the entire afternoon. By scoring on a blocked kick Catawba got an early lead and kept things well under control the remainder of the game, which ended at 14 to 0.

In spite of the loss of five games, the Bears are to be congratulated on their fine display of sportsmanship. Under the capable coaching of Coaches Stasavich, Ratterree and Erwin, the Bears are certain of a stronger team in the future.

. . . the 1954 bruin basketball season

Ending a half-way successful season last year with a tie for fourth place, the hardwood squad, under the capable leadership of Coach Jim "Pappy" Hamilton, looked with great hope to the 1953-54 season and a conference championship. The big holdback, however, will be due to the lack of experience which is of major importance in the North State Conference.

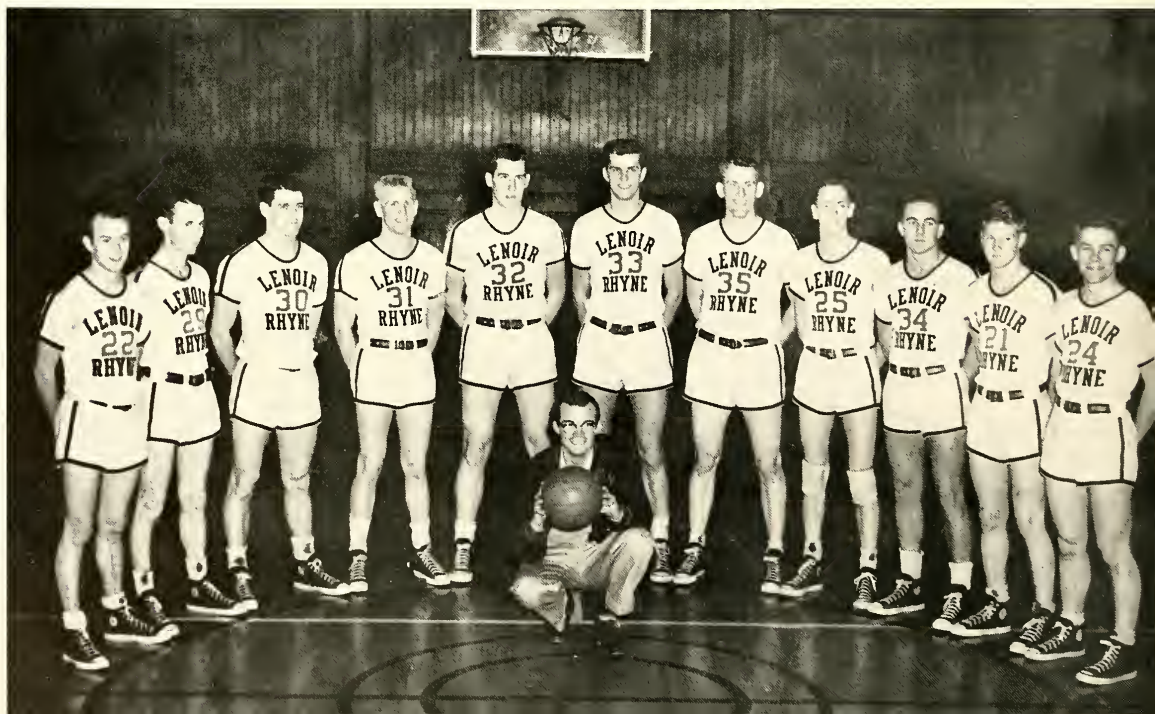

East Carolina seems to be the strongest opponent having beaten the Bears two games, the only games the Bruins have lost in conference play thus far.

When the North State Tournament rolls around in February, past records will be forgotten and you will likely see the big bad Bears from Lenoir Rhyne fighting for the top booth.

The Bear nine, defending Champions of the North State Conference, went through the regular season undefeated and had only one setback in preseason exhibitions, that to a strong Rutherford County professional club. Elon, a very strong contender from the Eastern division of the conference, exploded with seven big runs in the early innings of the first game of the conference playoffs at Kannapolis, and went on take the game by a score of 12-1.

Lenoir Rhyne came back to win the second game behind the four-hit pitching of the ace hurler Roland Barker. Giles Setzer and Van Tarlton led the Bears at the plate as the Bruins took the game 11 to 5.

Going into the last game with the series tied, Coach Troy Washam selected Raeford Thomas to pitch for the Bears. Elon quickly "took a liking" for his deliveries and stumbled to a 5-0 lead. Roland Barker replaced Thomas on the mound and the Bears rebounded to take a 6 to 5 lead. The score remained the same until the ninth inning, when Elon scored 2 runs, and the Bruins scored one to tie the score at 7 all. Elon was set down scoreless in the tenth inning. The Bears then came to

The Lettermen's Club gave evidence this year that it is one of the most energetic organizations on campus. Showing movies of the "Bear" football games, sponsoring outings, selling Christmas Cards, and generally boosting school spirit have been some of its activities. This club is composed of men who have excelled and earned a letter in one of the five major sports at Lenoir Rhyne.

The cindermen of Lenoir Rhyne again breezed through the track meet at High Point in 1953, taking the North State Crown for two seasons in a row. Gaining points in almost every event, the Bears added the track trophy to the case. Two new records were made at the '53 meet. Freshman Ken Pless broke the previous pole vault record, and Jerry Robinson broke the 100 yard dash, speeding the distance in 9.9 seconds. Gene Robinson also broke the record, at the same time, but during the preliminaries.

Under the capable coaching of Coaches Bill Brandon and "Pappy" Hamilton, the cindermen added to their honors the second track championship in the history of Lenoir Rhyne College.

Although women's intercollegiate sports have been discontinued, the fairer sex refuses to sit back and let their abilities in athletics fade away. A strong Women's Athletic Association gives to the co-ed an opportunity to challenge the so-called "men's sports world."

Interest and participation are the main objectives of the W.A.A. It provides competition among the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes in basketball, volleyball, tumbling, tennis, soccer, softball, and folk dancing.

intramural sports

The intramural program of 1953, under the capable guidance of Coaches Jim Hamilton and Pride Ratterree, was highlighted by keen interest and competition in all sports. By the competitive spirit and with the aid of the students, the intramural program was enjoyed by everyone. The intramural team champion for 1953 was the Eta Delta Zeta Fraternity, repeating from last season. This championship is obtained by the team having the most points in all events.
